

Hein Verbruggen
President
SportAccord

Lausanne, 7 February 2013

To whom it may concern,

This letter hereby confirms that the World Flying Disc Federation (WFDF) has been a Full Member of SportAccord in good standing since 1995. As such, SportAccord recognises the WFDF as the world governing body of Flying Disc and the authority on all matters relating to this sport.

SportAccord is the umbrella organisation for International Sports Federations, both Olympic and non-Olympic, as well as organisers of international sporting events. Our mission is to unite and support our Members in the coordination and protection of their common aims and interests, while conserving and respecting their autonomy.

Please do not hesitate to contact us should you have any questions.

Yours sincerely,

Hein Verbruggen
President
